Leon Frazier, Well-Known Local Attorney Succumbs

OREM — Leon Monroe Frazier, 47, Orem attorney, died Saturday morning at the Veterans Hospital in Salt Lake City of cancer. He lived at 490 E. 4th S. in Orem.

Mr. Frazier was born Oct. 26, 1923, in Provo, a son of Lorenzo F. and Otiss De St. Jeor Frazier. He married Ruth Boley on Aug. 30, 1948, in the Salt Lake LDS Temple.

Mr. Frazier was a graduate of Provo High School and attended Brigham Young University before enlisting in the U.S. Army during World War II. He transferred to the Army Air Force and received a commission as a pilot, being honorably discharged as a captain from the Judge Advocate General's Department of Reserve.

After the war he received his B.S. and Doctor of Juris Prudence degrees from the University of Utah. In 1949, he began practicing law in the Provo-Orem area. Between 1951 and 1954, he was legal counselor and attorney on the personal staff of industrialist Howard Hughes.

In 1963, he lived in Colorado for a year where he was president of a bank and holding company. Mr. Frazier was a member of the Utah Bar Association, California Bar Association and American Bar Association.

He had been admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court and the Military Court of Appeals. He was a member of Phi Alpha Delta legal
